

"What Your Mother Taught You. Civility & Manners: Courtroom Style"

Advice and comments on the behavior and conduct of lawyers and judges in and out of the courtroom with emphasis on civility and manners.

Presented by: Hon. Jeffrey A. Manning, President-Judge Emeritus, Court of Common Pleas, Fifth Judicial District, Pennsylvania

- I. Want to be treated like a Lawyer?
 - a. Look like a lawyer
 - b. Act like a lawyer
 - C. Preparation – the be all of good trial work
- II. Dignity and Respect
- III. It's not your Courtroom
- IV. The Judge's Staff
- V. Know the Beast
- VI. Stand
- VII. May it please the Court
- VIII. The Caterpillar – RU
- IX. Don't speak until spoken to
- X. Permission to approach
- XI. Object to the Court
- XII. Remain Still
- XIII. Conduct in the hallway
- XIV. The "I" word